Submission advice

The design is intended to be used as an International Quality trademark

The design should seek to represent the quality standards of the industry, the industry values and product attributes.

The design should consider the Market where it is to be predominantly used and the customer needs.

No health claim can be made by the trademark

The design needs to be legible and recognizable at each scale representation

Note legibility under the FSANZ food standards code 1.2.9 requires for a small honey package (10cm x 10cm surface area) a minimum 1.5mm size type.

All competition submissions from all participants will be displayed at this dinner.

The applicable law and jurisdiction is those laws pertaining to and governed by the state of Western Australia, no other laws shall apply.

1. Who May Enter

The competition is not open to:

- a person who is an employee, officer, servant, volunteer or contractor of ChemCentre or the assessment panel involved in this competition;
- the spouse, de facto spouse, parent, natural or adopted child, and sibling (whether natural or adopted by a parent), of a person referred to in paragraph (a) above;
- any person who is not the creator or owner of the designs submitted.
- a person who refuses to comply with or breaches any terms of these General Competition Entry Rules. All contestants acknowledge that the panel can rely on this clause at any time, even if the panel only learns of a person's ineligibility after the panel has nominated the person as the winner or awarded the prize. Return of the prize or payment of its value to ChemCentre can be required by the panel if this occurs.

2. Prizes

Notwithstanding anything else in these Rules, the panel has absolute discretion in awarding prizes in a competition.

In order to claim a prize in a competition, the winner must:

- be eligible to enter under these General Competition Entry Rules and have completed submissions as outlined in the submission form;
- be announced by the panel as the winner of that prize by means determined by the panel;
- not be prohibited by any rule of law from using or otherwise enjoying the prize for which he or she has been announced as the winner;
- demonstrate to the panel's satisfaction that he or she is the winner of the prize and the submitter, and if necessary prove that he or she is not prohibited from using or otherwise enjoying the prize (for example, by producing photo-identification, such as a driver's licence or passport, or signing a declaration to that effect); and
- comply with any request made by the panel under the General Competition Entry Rules; and
- Multiple entries are allowed per participant however individual submission forms must be submitted and signed for each design to be considered by the panel.

Where the winner of a prize is below the lawful age to use or otherwise enjoy the relevant prize, the panel may, in its absolute discretion, award the prize to the winner's lawful parent or guardian or require the parent or guardian to sign an indemnity and consent for the winner to receive or participate in the prize.

Prizes will only be awarded following winner validation and verification.

Should a prize winner choose not to accept the prize allocated by the panel, the prize will not be substituted with another prize.

All prize items are valued inclusive of GST and the panel takes no responsibility for any variation in item values. Any taxes which may be payable as a consequence of a winner receiving the prize are the sole responsibility of that winner.

Prizes are non-transferable and may not be redeemed for cash. If the specified prize becomes unavailable, the panel may substitute a prize of like or equal value.

No prohibited prizes will be awarded.

Winners will be notified by mail, telephone, email or by any other contact details provided by the winner.

Any loss of prizes by the recipient is not the responsibility of the panel. Upon request by the panel a copy of the General Competition Entry Rules and/or a signed receipt and acknowledgment must be signed and endorsed by any winner to indicate his/her understanding and acceptance of these submission and use terms.

All unclaimed prizes after ninety days (90) days of the announcing event being announced as won at the industry event will be forfeited, and a panel reassessment may take place, all at the panel's discretion.

In the event a winner chooses not to accept a prize, they forfeit any and all claims to the prize which can then be awarded to a competition runner up at the time at the discretion of the panel.

The panel's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

3. Exclusion of Liability

BICWA the panel or ChemCentre takes no responsibility for the loss of prizes due to incorrect or imprecise delivery details provided by an entrant. BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered or sustained (including but not limited to consequential loss), including for personal injury or property damage suffered or sustained, as a result of accepting any prize or participation in any competition or prize, except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

A person who enters a competition releases from and indemnifies BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre from and against all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of acceptance of any prize or participation in any competition including (but not limited to) personal injury and damage to property and whether direct, indirect, consequential, foreseeable, due to some negligent act or omission, or otherwise.

A winner (or his or her parent or guardian as appropriate) may be required to sign and return any liability release and provided by BICWA the panel or ChemCentre and/or its contractors as a condition of the prize being awarded. Failure to return the signed releases and indemnities will result in the entitlement to the prize being forfeited and a selection of another winner.

4. Disqualification

BICWA the panel or ChemCentre assumes no responsibility for any error, defect, delay, theft or unauthorized access to or alternation of entries. Subject to any written directions given under the applicable law, if for any reason, the competition is not capable of operating as planned, including infection by computer viruses, tampering, unauthorized intervention, fraud or any other causes beyond the control of BICWA the panel or ChemCentre which corrupts or affects the administration, security, fairness, or proper conduct of the competition, then BICWA the panel or ChemCentre reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend this competition.

BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to disqualify any individual for:

(a) tampering with the entry process, including misrepresentation of ownership of design, or any other process as determined by BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre that in any way affects the fairness or desired end use of the trademark design submitted;

(b) tampering with the operation of the competition or web site;
(c) acting in an unsportsmanlike or disruptive manner; or
(d) if an entrant selected as winner is found to be in breach of any term of these General Competition Entry Rules, a new winner may be selected and, in the event that the entrant in breach has been awarded a prize, the entrant may be required to return the prize or reimburse the value of the prize to ChemCentre.

5. Participation

Participation in the competition constitutes the entrant's unconditional agreement to and acceptance of these General Competition Entry Rules. These rules may change from time to time including by extending the time for, varying or terminating any competition at the discretion of the panel. The Entrant is responsible for insuring his or her familiarity with the General Competition Entry Rules. BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre decision not to enforce a specific restriction does not constitute a waiver of that restriction or of the General Competition Entry Rules. BICWA, the panel or ChemCentre may enforce these Rules in its absolute discretion. The General Competition Entry Rules are to be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Western Australia. The panel or ChemCentre may terminate any contest at any time at its absolute discretion. In the event of such termination, The panel or ChemCentre may at its absolute discretion elect not to award any prize in respect of the terminated contest.

6. Ownership of Entries

The winning competition entries and their material, artwork, concepts or intellectual rights submitted in connection with the competition as designs or artwork or intellectual property (whether artwork, design, written, audio, electronic or visual form, or a combination of those) or any photographs, video and/or film footage and/or audio recording taken of competitors ownership is assigned to BICWA and ChemCentre upon submission and become the property of BICWA and ChemCentre which may use the material in any medium in any reasonable manner it sees fit. Copyright for any such material remains the sole property of BICWA and ChemCentre.

The winning entries and material remain the property of BICWA and ChemCentre (subject to the limits contained in the Privacy Statement). Each entrant warrants that he or she owns the copyright and any other intellectual property rights in any such material submitted in connection with this competition and has full power and authority to agree to and grant the above assignments, consents and other rights to BICWA and ChemCentre.

The competition is completed when all prizes have been awarded.

At completion non-winning participants have 3 months to collect their original artwork submissions from ChemCentre after this time they will be confidentially disposed of.

Photographs will be taken of submissions and participants and may be used in promotion or reporting of event outcomes.

The participants submitting designs acknowledge the intent of the competition and its organizers BICWA is to identify a suitable quality trademark design for their industry, the winner of the competition consents to unconditional usage of the selected winning design and artwork in whole or partial usage by BICWA and ChemCentre and to registration of the winning trademark design, as identified by the panel, internationally by BICWA and ChemCentre.

All contestants acknowledge, as a condition of entry, that BICWA and ChemCentre has the right to publicize his/her name, or all matters incidental herein.

7. Privacy and Publicity

A person who enters a competition may be required to submit personal or confidential information about himself or herself (including without limitation his or her name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, marital status, occupation, spending preferences or any other such information) ("Personal Information") to BICWA and ChemCentre. BICWA and ChemCentre will treat any Personal Information obtained from a person who enters a competition in accordance with normal BICWA and ChemCentre Privacy Policy.

BICWA and ChemCentre may refuse to accept an entry which does not contain all or any other of the submission detail or Personal Information requested by BICWA and ChemCentre

8. Dispute Resolution

If there is a dispute between a participant and BICWA and or ChemCentre that cannot be resolved, then the matter must be referred to the Australian Commercial Disputes Centre for arbitration in accordance with the Centre's Guidelines on Arbitration. The decision of the arbitrator (including any award as to costs) will be final and binding

11. General

- (a) This Agreement records the entire agreement and supersedes all earlier agreements and representations that may have been made by BICWA and ChemCentre about the competition.
- (b) The terms in this Agreement override any contrary terms contained in any invoice, purchase order, presentation or other documentation issued by you to BICWA and ChemCentre for the competition.
- (c) This Agreement is governed by the laws applicable to Western Australia.
